

BOTTLE & BOTTEGA in the news...

Evanston Review

my home • my local news

Bottle & Bottega's Evanston grand opening tonight, Peggy Kusinski painting

Bottle & Bottega, a popular spot to drink wine while creating art, is having its grand opening tonight for the new downtown location at 1016 Davis Street. Read the press release below for more information:

The wheels are off. Bottle & Bottega has parked itself permanently in Evanston.

The premier art and wine concept announced today the grand opening of its new permanent studio location in Downtown Evanston at 1016 Davis Street, conveniently situated just off the Davis Purple line CTA stop and Metra station, amid the area's bustling shopping and entertainment district. Lynette Martin, owner of Evanston's Bottle & Bottega, will use the new